DETAILED ACTION

Minor informalities noted

Page 3: line 6, the phrase "such a pen holders 108, as" should be changed to read – such as pen holders 108, --.

Page 4: line 3 of paragraph [0019], "106I" should be – 106L --. See Fig. 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by either Galiani'347 or Galiani'770.

Regarding claim 1, Galiani teaches a magnifying holder comprising a front 126, a back 126', a spine 124 joining the front and the back, and a magnifying lens 134 attached to the front ,or 144 attached to the back.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Galiani'347 or Galiani'770.

Either of the above Galiani's patents teaches the invention substantially as claimed in claims 9 and 10, except for the dimensions of the back (claim 9) and those of the magnifying lens (claim 10). For these dimensions, it is to be noted that the magnifying lens of the patents is for the booklets, whereas that of the present invention can also be used for the booklets such as suggested on line 9 of page 5 of the specification of the present case. In fact, the "back" in question and the magnifying lens of the patents appear to be larger, though not specifically disclosed, than those of the present claims 9 and 10. These larger dimensions should offer more practicality to the device. In light of this note, no critical advantage of the present device of claims 9 and 10 over that of the patents is noted. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of invention to vary the dimensions of those elements a bit to accommodate the need.

Art Unit: ***

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
